

WiFi (eduroam)

eduroam (educational roaming) is a worldwide collaboration within academia for accessing the WiFi network of member organizations.

The service allows students and staff to access Internet securely and easily through other members' WiFi. A student or employee whose school is an eduroam member is able to logon to wireless networks at other connected schools and where eduroam is available.